about

Shows the ability to handle both the people-side and the detail-side of a project with equal skill and confidence.

Decisions are made by gathering facts and considering the needs of the people involved.

Able to accomplish complex tasks by working enthusiastically with people.

Has the ability to carry out detailed action plans, and verbalize the steps in an articulate manner.

Has ability to take the seed of an idea and make it develop into a successful solution.

When the organizational urgency gets high, works with the team to restore comfort and also get the urgent project done successfully.

Love the 2 new posts for DNA! I like the branding you used along with the logo also great topic.
-DNA

Thank you for doing it over the weekend, too --and w/o any instruction. That's exactly how A-Class VA's should behave.
-Hilton
